

Edit a Section

In the section being edited, the user can edit the "section name", "section description", "section color", can change the "Reading allowed" and "Approval required" rights.

To edit a section, the user clicks on the "Edit" button.

The user is presented with the following dialog where he can edit the "title, description and colour" of the section, as well as change the "Reading allowed" and "Approval required" rights.

A screenshot of a 'Edit section' dialog. The dialog has a title 'Edit section' and a 'Logistics' icon. Below the icon, there is a description: 'It represents the organisation, planning, management and implementation of the flows of goods through development and purchasing.' and a link 'Publication Example Root'. The dialog contains several form fields: 'Name' with the value 'Logistics', 'Notes' with the same description as above, and 'Color' with a color picker showing a teal color. There are two checkboxes: 'Permission to read by default' (unchecked) and 'Approval required' (checked). At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Back' and 'Save'.

If everything is set, the user clicks the "Save" button.
